Catholic Online
INFORM - INSPIRE - IGNITE

SAINTS FUN FACTS

Saint Thomas Becket was born and raised in England. Involved in hunting and falconry as a youth, on one occasion he dove into the river saving his expensive falcon who had chased a duck under water. He became the Archbishop of Canterbury in 1162 and was assassinated by knights on orders from King Henry II due to a rift between the church and state.

Written & Illustrated by John Sheppard

Saints Fun Facts© - Copyright 2015 Catholic Online – All Rights Reserved catholic.org